

God Is My Shelter

Where should I go when I'm afraid of my enemies?
I saw a bird hide in his nest, all snuggled under his wings.
But where was my hiding place to be?
In God I will hide right in the shadow of his wings. Psalm 17:8

How can I be protected?
Where will my shield be?
The turtle's shield is his shell.
But my God will surround me like a shield. Psalm 5:12

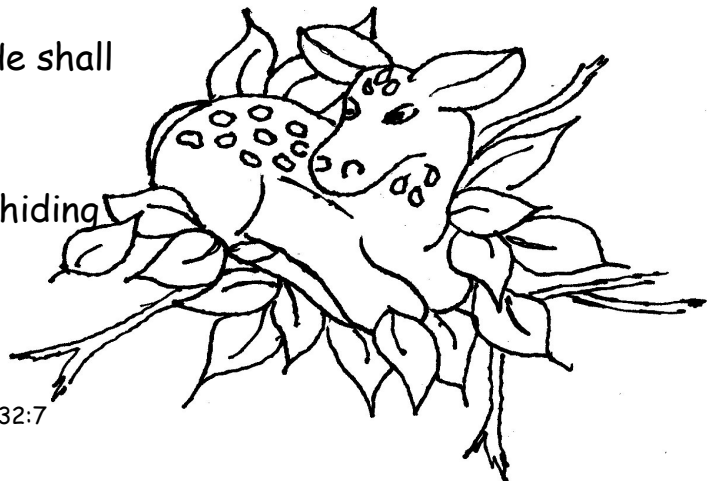

In whom do you put your trust?
The monkey trusts in the branch of a tree;
And the spider trusts the web she spins.
But blessed we will be, if we put our trust in God. Psalm 2:12

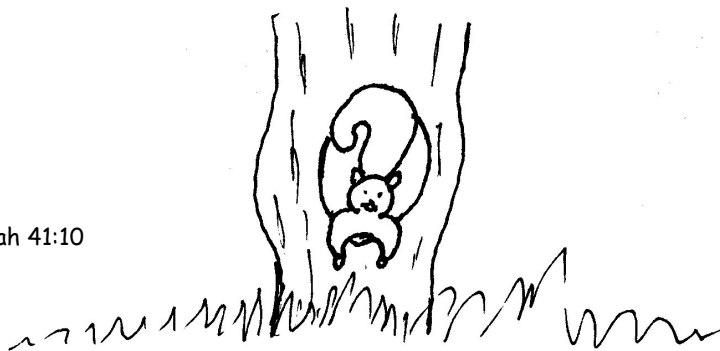

When I am weak and weary,
Where does my strength come from?
The strength of a lion is in his roar.
But God is my strength, I will call upon Him and He shall deliver me. Psalm 181:2

When it's thundering and lightening, where is my hiding Place?

The spots on the baby fawn help him to hide;
The bear hides in his den.
But God is my hiding place; He is my refuge. Psalm 32:7

When I am hot and tired,
Where will I find shade to rest?
The squirrel burrows in the tree trunk,
But in God I will find comfort and help. Isaiah 41:10

Where do I go when I'm thirsty?
I know I need water to live.
The little ducks swim in the clean water free,
But God will give me living water, so I can live eternally. John 7:37

Where do I go when I'm ready to give up?
The octopus sticks tight to everything.
My God teaches me to HOLD ON to the TRUTH;
And I know soon He will come to this earth. Revelation 3:11

How do I know God cares for me?
Just like the kangaroo cares for her young,
He cares for me more than silver and gold,
And His love for me will never grow old. 1Peter 5:7

How can I be forgiven?
How can I be free from sin?
I'll ask forgiveness from God above,
And by the blood of Christ, He sets me free. Revelation 1:5,

I know my help is in God;
Who made the beautiful earth. Psalm 124:8
I will make God my shelter, Psalm 61:3
And put all my trust in Him. Psalm 31:14
